Each PhD presents in max. 15 minutes his/her research question, relevance and contribution, case selection and time period, data and methods as well as initial results. A PowerPoint presentation is advised. Please make sure to have a Mac and PC compatible file. Presentations should be clear, to the point, structured and convey what the main findings are. For discussion we plan 30 minutes for each PhD.

Information

The three papers on which lectures are based in the morning, as well as the material for the afternoon PhD presentations (one specific paper or chapter of the dissertation) are available in a protected platform from which they can be downloaded. Please all make sure to send the material to spoerer@nccr-democracy.uzh.ch no later than June 7. You will receive separate information about accessing the platform. Papers for the morning lectures and materials for the afternoon presentation should be read in advance and it is expected that participants are prepared for the workshop.
